

Protect Your Finances This Military Consumer Month

Do you manage your finances digitally? Do you stay up to date on the latest warnings about online scams? Refresh your knowledge of consumer protections during Military Consumer Month from the Department of Defense, Federal Trade Commission and the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau.

Financial Tech

Fintech can improve your financial capabilities. Learn about security features that protect your online assets and how to choose money management apps to fit your lifestyle and future financial goals.

Scams

From phishing to debt collection to mail fraud, scams come in many forms. Equip yourself and loved ones with the know-how to detect scams and fraud.

Military Protections

Read the Military Lending Act and Servicemembers Civil Relief Act and take advantage of financial protections available to service members and their families.

COVID-19

Service members, veterans and military families have resources that can help them protect and manage their finances during the pandemic. Get up-to-date information on recovering financially from COVID-19.

Visit www.militaryconsumer.gov to learn more.
Search for #MilConsumer2021 on:

